The paper is informative. However, some problems must be solved.

First, chapters 1,2, and 3 can be combined into an introduction, adding some brief introduction to the Chinhoyi Caves.

Second, an introduction to the geological and geographical setting of the cave is necessary, or the introduction of geological and geographical background as a second section, after the introduction.

Third, Chinhoyi Caves are unfamiliar to many foreigners, why not attach some stunning photos of caves in the text?
