The paper seems to be good and informative on issues affecting women's access to financial services; however, the following suggestions can be made to improve the article. In the introduction, it would be good to cite the source of some statements, e.g., women accounting for the majority of the workforce in agribusiness. Also, in the literature review, you can avoid including studies older than five years to validate your claims. The discussion section can be more interesting by supporting your argument from other empirical studies concerning the subject.
