

Review of: "Bisphosphonate-Related Osteonecrosis of the Jaws Treated with Platelet-Rich Plasma: Preliminary Results from a Case Series"

Samuele Cicchiello¹

¹ University of Messina

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

While I have carefully read the article, I noticed that, although well-written and informative, it lacks an indication of the degree of BRONJ for the treated patients. Including this information could significantly enrich the clinical context of the treatment and provide readers with a more comprehensive perspective on the severity of the cases treated. Therefore, I would like to suggest adding this information, if applicable, to enhance the completeness and clarity of the article. This addition could further strengthen the value of your research.