

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Frontal Sinus Polyp

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Frontal Sinus Polyp. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4367.

A polyp that arises from the frontal sinus mucosa. It is characterized by the presence of edematous tissue infiltrated by inflammatory cells, including eosinophils. Causes include allergic rhinitis, chronic sinusitis, and cystic fibrosis.