The topic of the article is very important and practical, and it has been well covered in various aspects. But there are some weaknesses:

- The type of review is not clear in the title
- Few references are mentioned in the introduction, and some of the contents are not referenced
- The purpose of the study is not stated in the abstract and introduction
- The search process, keywords, criteria for selecting articles, and search time period are not clear
- Due to the scope of the subject, few references have been cited

Thank you for the opportunity to review this article
