

Review of: "Entrepreneurship education in the Tanzanian higher education institutes: The learning theories perspective"

Amanuel Ayde Ergado¹

¹ Jimma University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The manuscript entitled "Entrepreneurship education in the Tanzanian higher education institutes: The learning theories perspective", this is a good manuscript but it looks like concept paper. I recommend the author to follow scientific procedure for better readership. Procedure of the study should be presented clearly, research gaps should be indicated, the findings and conclusion should be made scientifically by comparing scientific findings in the area, subject matter should be logically connected.