

Review of: "Beyond Boundaries: Exploring Livability in Diverse CPTED-Enhanced Neighbourhoods of Bengaluru"

Menna Tawfik¹

¹ Nile University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

- Topic is important in urban studies, and the manuscript is well structured.
- Minor English mistakes needs revision, and references writing tin the text

For example, (S. et al. Mustafa) without reference.

- The principles of the CPTED model (early model) needs more explanation of reasoning why this model specifically is chosen, as there are other additions layer to it, like the 2nd generation of the CPTED that adds community culture, community connectivity, social cohesion, and threshold capacity (see cozens& love, 2017).
- The questionnaire in the quantitative data analysis, isn't well explained in the text and how it is measured, it could be better to show the detailed responses in the charts
- Interviews questions could be mentioned briefly in the text or attached in the appendix, with number of responses.
- There is a duplication in the text of the results 4.2.1, and lessons 4.2.1, need refinement on the text.
- Results need more elaboration in the findings, and relationship between the variables, what is highly affecting...