

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Prostate Ductal Adenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Prostate Ductal Adenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C6813.

A usually aggressive invasive adenocarcinoma of the prostate gland composed of large glands containing tall columnar cells. The columnar cells have abundant cytoplasm and are reminiscent of endometrial carcinoma. This type of adenocarcinoma has a tendency to metastasize to the lung and penis.