

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Croup

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Croup. NCI Thesaurus. Code C26735.

Acute upper respiratory airways infection that results in the swelling of the larynx. It is usually caused by parainfluenza viruses. Signs include a characteristic barking cough and stridor.