

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Mixed Function Oxidase

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Mixed Function Oxidase. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16865.

These enzymes use molecular oxygen catalyze the donation of one oxygen atom to a substrate specific site, while the other atom is donated to the generation of water. The enzyme uses molecular oxygen as the oxygen source instead of water, and is critical for several endocrine function operations.