The topic seems quite interesting. The language is grammatically correct. However, there are some aspects on which the author should to work on. These aspects are as follows:

1. The article must be divided into different parts with appropriate headings, such as Introduction, Literature Review, Research Question, Discussion, and Conclusion, etc.
2. As the article is not appropriately divided into particular sections, it begins abruptly. The reader must be provided with a reason or purpose for the study, for choosing the particular thinkers. A review of relevant literature is a must.

I wish the author success in his endeavour and would like them to resend the work to me after incorporating the above modifications.

Thank you.
