

Review of: "Understanding How the Design of Urban Areas Can Negate Anti-Social Behaviour and Criminal Activity: Taking the Example of Hyderabad Urban Areas as Case Studies"

Aftab Lokhandwala¹

¹ Dr.Bhanuben Nanavati College of Architecture For Women

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article opens up interesting premises to the study of safety aspects and urban development and answers pertinent questions on the same. Laying the groundwork, there is considerable scope for future research particularly in the context of Indian urban development. The observations made can be carried forth and analysed in light of different cities or development patterns.