

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Neurotransmitter Activity Induction

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Neurotransmitter Activity Induction. NCI Thesaurus. Code C41522.

Neurotransmitter Activity Induction involves initiation of the biological function, through increased production, neuronal release, or decreased re-uptake, of endogenous signaling molecules secreted by neurons that have specific regulatory effects on the activity of ion channels or second messenger systems in target effector cells.