

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Focal facial dermal dysplasia type II

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Focal facial dermal dysplasia type II. ORPHA:398173

Focal facial dermal dysplasia type II (FFDD2) is a focal facial dermal dysplasia (FFDD; see this term), characterized by congenital bitemporal scar-like depressions and other facial and organ abnormalities.