The paper covers interesting and relevant topic. Still, it lacks solid theoretical foundation and methodological rigour. Namely, the following aspects raise concerns:

- In the introduction, the purpose and contribution are not addressed;
- The theoretical foundation should be enhanced.
- The sample is too small and it is not clear how it is representative, as stated.
- The method for data analysis is not adequate to capture the impact, as stated.
- The discussion as it is now is insufficient.
