

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Olfactory Receptor Cell

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Olfactory Receptor Cell. NCI Thesaurus. Code C13151.

A specialized, fusiform nerve cell with a large nucleus, embedded among the epithelial cells in the mucous membrane of the nose; it carries impulses from the olfactory receptors to the glomeruli in the olfactory bulb.