The abstract needs to be rewritten because it is too long. The abstract should be completely rewritten using actual results according to the requirements of the journal.

Images 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 in the article should be redrawn. The name of the picture is written under the picture only once. Therefore, the image titles at the top of the images should be removed.

Images 10 and 11 should be referenced in the article, and a description should be written for each image.
