Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

- The references and the citations inside the introduction show incomplete correlation and incomplete information.
- The introduction section about the overview of the area of research should be written. Instead of keeping the literature survey inside the introduction section, keep a separate section as Literature Review.
- The drawbacks of using RFID systems, like easy damage, need to be addressed.
- 2.3.3 needs to be written with more content.
- 2.3 itself contains only diagrams, no proper explanation of each diagram and workflow. A detailed explanation of the 2.3 full subsections is required.
- English sentence grammar is not proper; for example, 2.2 work principle should be corrected to working principle or work flow. The full content needs to be rewritten with proper English.
- 2.1 lacks a proper explanation.
- All sections have insufficient explanation and need more explanation.
- This paper needs more revision.
