Dear author,

1. I appreciate the author taking up this area for review.
2. If possible, in the title So why is there so little research? rewrite
3. In the Abstract, using I and out of the box needs to be correct.
4. Throughout the manuscript, Grammer and Typological errors need to correct.
5. Suitable to address the natural plants used along with soap is a good one.
6. For effective representation, a list of soap plants tabulates along with the part used and active components.
7. Plants reported in ancient traditional medicine for use in a bath are also considered, which will address the knowledge gaps.
