

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Retinoschisin Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Retinoschisin Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C75573.

Retinoschisin Protein (224 aa, 26 kDa) is a development protein that is encoded by the human RS1 gene and is involved in retinal development and aging, and may play a role in cell-cell adhesion.