Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The paper lacks literature support. The author has chosen a very good topic to work on. However, without 'thick' literature inclusion with proper citation and sources, the paper will not cover many important aspects of the topic.
2. The introduction section should be much longer.
3. The author has incorporated significant verses from the Quran and hadith regarding knowledge in Islam. The inclusion of 'tafseer' from reliable tafseer sources of these verses would make the article more deep.
4. The article needs more rigorousness. The lengths of the sections are short. The author can enrich the sections by including relevant issues.
5. The article needs proper citations and references.
6. Mentioning books or articles related to Said Nursi is much needed.
