

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Lymphoid Tissue

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Lymphoid Tissue. NCI Thesaurus. Code C13049.

Tissue characterized by the presence of large numbers of lymphocytes in different stages of transformation. Connective tissue cells including fibroblasts and macrophages may be present. Lymphoid tissue is framed by a network of reticular fibers and may be diffuse, or densely aggregated.