

Review of: "COVID-19 and Alzheimer's disease, closely related?"

Ashish Sarangi

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Good effort and interesting manuscript discussing association of COVID-19 and AD.

I do think it is necessary to briefly introduce COVID-19 and neurological symptoms in the first paragraph and discuss the pathophysiology of memory loss and COVID-19 some more.

The following manuscript does an overview of above and would recommend utilizing it as a guide. Please cite appropriately.

The commentary is otherwise well written and adds significantly to the ongoing discussion in the literature