

Review of: "Contentious Biometric Voters Registration and Democratic Politics under COVID-19: The Myth of 'Social Distance' in an African State?"

Fatima Amponsah Fordjour¹

¹ University for Development Studies

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

General comments on each section

Well written with a clear focus

Section: Gauging the Implications of the Voters Registration on the Containment of the COVID-19 Pandemic

1. The last paragraph under this section should be checked properly as Nigeria is repeated twice in a single sentence; "As a result, Ghana was described as the "second most impacted country in the West and Central African region following South Africa, Egypt and Nigeria, Nigeria"