

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Patient-Controlled Epidural Analgesia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Patient-Controlled Epidural Analgesia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C123385.

A method of analgesia that uses an epidural catheter and a pump to allow the patient to administer predetermined doses of analgesic into the epidural space as needed to maintain adequate pain control.