

Review of: "Assessing Sex Education Awareness Among Higher Secondary School Students in India"

Mukta Singh Bhandari¹

¹ Kathmandu University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This research highlights an important topic which requires further exploration. However, the article has been presented like a report rather than a scientific article. Starting from the abstract, the format of a scientific article should be followed. I would also recommend a revision of the discussion part by comparing it with similar articles.