

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Flutamide-Goserelin Regimen

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Flutamide-Goserelin Regimen. NCI Thesaurus. Code C63791.

A form of combined androgen blockade consisting of goserelin and leuprolide used to treat metastatic prostate cancer. This approach has been widely replaced by the use of surgical (orchiectomy) or medical (LHRH agonist) castration.