

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Colonoscopy with Marking of Cancerous Polyp

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Colonoscopy with Marking of Cancerous Polyp. NCI Thesaurus. Code C136342.

A procedure in which the location of a cancerous polyp is marked with a dye during colonoscopy, for the purpose of identifying the site for later, possible resection.