

Review of: "Sustainable Prosperity and Circular Economy in the Care of Mother Earth — The Blue Kiss"

Thais Helena Sydenstricker Flores-Sahagun¹

¹ Universidade Federal do Paraná

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I enjoyed the paper "Sustainable Prosperity and Circular Economy in the Care of Mother Earth - The Blue Kiss" because I agree that women, with their sensitivity, protective, and enterprising nature, have an important role in green reconstruction. A sustainable prosperity through a Circular Economy is still possible; women's capacities and skills can contribute enormously through projects that may have a more feminine approach. The emotional resource is fundamental in a new perspective on the protection of Nature circumscribed to innovation and sustainable prosperity.