This paper is not entirely bringing forward an original problem rather suggesting minor additions to the existing debate on the topic under consideration. Specifically the following sections need revision :

- 1- Introduction : it needs more justification as why do we need to study the mediating path in the exiting relationship
- 2- Literature review: Needs more rigor and updated citations.
- 3- Methodology: Needs clarity in terms of threshold values and the values obtained from collected data
- 4- Theoretical & Practical implications: State clearly the theoratical implications of the study with apprriate arguments.
