

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Patent Ductus Arteriosus

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Patent Ductus Arteriosus. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84492.

A congenital defect characterized by the failure of the ductus arteriosus to close soon after birth. As a consequence, blood from the aorta mixes with blood from the pulmonary artery. If untreated, it may lead to congestive heart failure.

Qeios ID: 2U5QK3 · https://doi.org/10.32388/2U5QK3