

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Keratinizing Primary Intraosseous Squamous Cell Carcinoma -Solid Type

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Keratinizing Primary Intraosseous Squamous Cell Carcinoma - Solid Type. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7498.

A squamous cell carcinoma that arises centrally from the jaw. It is characterized by a solid pattern, keratin production, infiltration of the marrow spaces, and osseous resorption.