

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Renal Pelvis Urothelial Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Renal Pelvis Urothelial Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7355.

A carcinoma that arises from the transitional epithelium of the renal pelvis. It is associated with tobacco use and usually presents with gross or microscopic hematuria. Urothelial carcinomas of the renal pelvis are usually of higher grade and higher stage compared to bladder urothelial carcinomas.