

Open Peer Review on Qeios

HIV Envelope Protein gp41

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. HIV Envelope Protein gp41. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16690.

A protein produced by the human immunodeficiency virus that functions as a viral attachment protein on the viral envelope. This transmembrane protein is a glycoprotein that non-covalently anchors gp120 to the virus particle.