This is a good topic. However, the manuscript need to be improved:

1. Abstract: Please include (i) general background information about your main research, (ii) problem statement describing your research question/hypothesis, (iii) methodology, (iv) results, and (v) the study's implications.
2. Materials and Method: Please include and explain (i) your study design and sampling method (ii) time frame of your data collection, (iii) sample size, (iv) validity and reliability of questionnaire. For statistical analysis, the authors should performed at least t-test and/correlation analysis.
3. Results and Discussion: (i) The table needs to be improved (please remove valid and cumulative percentages) and please consider using graphics instead of tables, (ii) study limitation needs to be included in the discussion.
4. Since the objectives were not clearly stated, the conclusion part will need to aligned with the objectives. Please re-check and improve this paragraph based on the revised objectives.
5. The term "health risk factor" appears in the manuscript's title, but it is not statistically evaluated and discussed.
6. Kindly rephrase the manuscript to be more reader friendly. And do professional proofread prior to re-submission as grammatical errors were noted in the manuscript.
