

Review of: "[Mini-review] Impact on Oral Health of Smoking Cigarettes, Cigars or Hookahs"

Santosh Mandal¹

¹ Morgan State University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

It is an interesting mini-review, and I have some thoughts about it. This piece is too brief to qualify as a mini-review and doesn't sufficiently address oral health topics. It lacks scientific data on how factors like cigarettes, cigars, or hookah impact oral health. Even though it talks about an important subject, the review doesn't have enough details, scientific facts, or proper references. It doesn't provide the information it promised in the summary, especially about how smoking affects oral health. It doesn't have enough evidence, and there's a difference between what it says in the summary and what's actually in the article. In short, the review needs more information and changes to be up to the standards.