

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Non-Keratinizing Primary Intraosseous Squamous Cell Carcinoma -Solid Type

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Non-Keratinizing Primary Intraosseous Squamous Cell Carcinoma -Solid Type. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7499.

A squamous cell carcinoma that arises centrally from the jaw. It is characterized by a solid pattern, lack of prominent keratinization, infiltration of the marrow spaces, and osseous resorption.