

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Bladder Urothelial Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Bladder Urothelial Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C39851.

The most common morphologic subtype of urinary bladder carcinoma (over 90% of cases). It arises from the transitional epithelium. It most often affects males in their sixth and seventh decades of life. Hematuria is the most common symptom at presentation. Pathologic stage is the strongest predictor of survival.