

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Ceramide-1-Phosphate Transfer Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Ceramide-1-Phosphate Transfer Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C113112.

Ceramide-1-phosphate transfer protein (214 aa, ~24 kDa) is encoded by the human CPTP gene. This protein is involved in intercellular transport of sphingolipids.