

Review of: "Progression-free survival as a primary end-point: Counting the cost"

Fernando Mendes¹

¹ Instituto Politécnico de Coimbra

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The current manuscript addresses an important topic in cancer treatment, to be published it needs significant improvement.

The author must clarify the strategy used to select the references that support all manuscript. The aim of manuscript is missing, also author should clarify and organize the manuscript in way that we can compare solid tumors with solid tumors and liquid tumors with liquid tumors.

It is suggested to the author to change all words in Latin to be written in Italic, such as versus, et al., vs.

At the abbreviation list there are abbreviations missing, also the first time we use an abbreviation it must be fully written, between brackets the abbreviation, and from there on only the abbreviation.

Subchapters and table title should not have any abbreviations.