The fulcrum of this research was on Long and Perry. Therefore, Long and Perry have to be included in this title.

Comments [f3 ,f5,and f6] Some statements have to be rephrased. For examples: The aim of this study is to replicate Long & Perrys (2016) God study using a more updated database and different inclusion criteria. needs to be rephrased. Instead of saying these authors tried to .state in clear terms what each of the authors stated concerning these experiences.

Discussion

The main aim of this study was to replicate Long and Perrys (2016) God study using a larger database and different inclusion criteria.

This has been repeated severally in this research report.
