

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Long COVID

Luis del Carpio-Orantes

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Persistence of COVID symptoms 12 weeks after presenting an acute condition, associated with fibrinoid and amyloid microthrombosis secondary to antigenic stimulation of viral particles and prevalence of persistent immunothrombosis that causes occlusion of the microvasculature, endothelitis and ischemia-reperfusion damage