

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Follicular Dendritic Cell

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Follicular Dendritic Cell. NCI Thesaurus. Code C12622.

Antigen Presenting Cells (APCs) located in the follicles of secondary lymphoid organs. These dendritic cells are unique because of their location, primarily in lymphoid follicles, and because of their function in retaining antigen molecules for extended periods of time and serving as APCs for B cells.