

Open Peer Review on Qeios

X-linked parkinsonism-spasticity syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. X-linked parkinsonism-spasticity syndrome. ORPHA:363654

X-linked parkinsonism-spasticity syndrome is a rare genetic neurological disorder characterized by parkinsonian features (including resting or action tremor, cogwheel rigidity, hypomimia and bradykinesia) associated with variably penetrant spasticity, hyperactive deep tendon reflexes and Babinski sign.