The topic discussed by the author is very interesting, but it is necessary to describe in more detail the contents of sub chapter. In the abstract sub-chapter, author should to explain the background, objectives, methods and results of the research. Likewise in the introductory sub-chapter, needs to reveal interesting data and phenomena why this theme needs to be researched. In the method section, it is necessary to explain who is the respondent, where the research location is conducted and how to process the data that has been collected. Because the introductory section and the method are not yet related to each other, the result section also cannot provide an overall picture of the themes discussed. Author also need to improve technical matters in writing article, for example in citing references, and bibliography format.
