

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pseudomonas fluorescens

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pseudomonas fluorescens. NCI Thesaurus. Code C86700.

A species of obligatively aerobic, Gram negative, rod shaped bacteria in the phylum Proteobacteria. This species is motile, non spore forming, a source of fluorescein and mupirocin and is used in the production of yogurt. P. fluorescens can be pathogenic to immunocompromised individuals.