Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The paper is concise but lacks detailed sections. Consider expanding the structure to include key components such as methodology, results, and discussion.
2. Provide a clear introduction to the article, outlining the scope and objectives of the psychosocial rehabilitation services discussed.
3. The introduction should provide more context on the importance and need for psychosocial rehabilitation services for individuals with substance use disorder.
4. Clearly state the objectives of the article to guide readers through the content.
5. A section detailing the methods employed in delivering psychosocial rehabilitation services is essential for a comprehensive understanding. Include information on the approaches, therapies, and interventions used.
6. Provide details on the duration and frequency of rehabilitation sessions.
7. If applicable, present key findings or outcomes from the psychosocial rehabilitation services. This will enhance the practical relevance of the article.
8. Consider including statistical or qualitative data, if available, to support the effectiveness of the rehabilitation programs.
9. Expand the discussion section to interpret the results and provide insights into the implications of the psychosocial rehabilitation services.
10. Discuss how the findings align with or contribute to existing literature on substance use disorder rehabilitation.
11. Ensure that references follow a consistent citation format throughout the paper. Some references may be incomplete or inconsistent.
12. Increase the number of references to support the claims and provide a more comprehensive overview of the literature.
13. Add an appendix for acronyms to enhance reader understanding, especially for those not familiar with the specific terminology used in the field.
14. Provide more detailed descriptions of the psychosocial rehabilitation services offered. Readers would benefit from a deeper understanding of the interventions and their impact.
15. Ensure that the language used is clear and accessible to a broad audience.
16. Conclude the article by summarizing the key takeaways and contributions of the psychosocial rehabilitation services discussed.
17. Kindly refer to and cite the following articles in relevance to this work: <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11277-022-09886-6>, <https://doi.org/10.48550/arXiv.2102.11742> , https://doi.org/10.1007/978-981-19-1520-8_3

18. Suggest potential avenues for future research or improvements in the services provided.
19. Consider incorporating specific clinical cases or examples to illustrate the application and success of psychosocial rehabilitation services.
20. If applicable, discuss any collaborations or interdisciplinary approaches involved in providing psychosocial rehabilitation services. Highlighting a multidisciplinary approach can add value to the article.
21. Clearly state the practical implications of the psychosocial rehabilitation services for practitioners, policymakers, and researchers in the field of substance use disorder treatment and rehabilitation.
