

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nevus Comedonicus

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Nevus Comedonicus. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3946.

A rare developmental skin condition consisting of abnormal pilosebaceous follicle development. It is characterized by linear or band-like distributions of groups of comedones, usually on the face, neck, upper arm, chest, and abdomen, that appear at birth or in childhood.