

Review of: "Measuring the Deviations from Perfect Competition: International Evidence"

Fahd Boundi Chraki¹

¹ Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is an interesting manuscript whose main aim consists of providing empirical evidence on the validity of perfect competition for 43 countries. As a suggestion, the author should include a section to discuss the literature focused on perfect competition and its criticism.