

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Locked-in syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Locked-in syndrome. ORPHA:2406

Locked-in syndrome (LIS) is a neurological condition characterized by the presence of sustained eye opening, quadriplegia or quadriparesis, anarthria, preserved cognitive functioning and a primary code of communication that uses vertical eye movements or blinking.